THE TEE-DEE MONEY PICTURE

The first prize in the Tee-Dee Money Contest was won last week by Jimmie Redwood, No. 2202 East Marshall Street, city, who drew the picture and wrote the verse. The other prize pictures and poems will follow in regular order.

To all, three things are certain to come; Grim death-number one-takes the lead: The prompt bill collector is never behind-Number two-whose requests we must heed To soften the pangs of the former, my friends, And provide for demands number two, Comes third, ready money, the results of want ads.,

A PRIZE OFFER.

Which the Tec-Dec will furnish for you.

The above ploture is the one of a series of the same style, which The Timean Dispatch vias prepared for the purpose of adding interest to the Tee-Dee Want Ad. Pages. These will be called The Tee-Dee Money Plotures, and the object of each will be to impress the fact that a very little Money can accomplish great results, when that Money is permitted to work through the Tee-Dee Wanta.

It is possible that the picture and the poetry might both be improved a little, but the artist and the poet are both very ground of the work that they have done on this-series of pictures and pooms, and they feel quits certain that they have done bedterthan any of The Times-Dispatch readers can do. The Times-Dispatch however, is not quite satisfied with their efforts and thinks that some of the amateur artists and toets, who read The Times-Dispatch and do the sundateur artists and toets, who read The Times-Dispatch and do offer three prizes of 41 each for the three best pictures or poems received before next Thursday night.

The Times-Dispatch will be the judge and will pass impartially on each one received. If the poem is unusually good, it may win a prize without any reference to the picture, or if the picture is good, it may win without reference to the poem. In other words, if you can draw a picture, draw the best one you can, and if you are not much of a peet you may win on your picture.

Send in either picture or poem, or both.

If there are any very good pictures or very good poems, The Times-Dispatch will publish them. None will be considered unless the general style and idea as given in the picture and verse above are followed and the real and full name of the contestant must be signed to each picture or very. The best three, whether they be pictures or poems, will aach receive a dollar.

The next one of this series will appear next Sunday.

ALL DRAWINGS MUST BE IN BLACK INK.
